CASTING RATIONALE

Audition observations and reasons behind current choices

Leads and Channel Surfers

Dash — Sophie; Suri understudy

Sophie has a strong track record in singing and acting and speaks confidently. The teacher does not think leading would hold her back. Hannah, the PQA owner, showed interest in Suri; Sophie remains the preferred Dash, with Suri as understudy.

Dewey — Phoebe on hold

Phoebe is somewhat underconfident and there is concern about whether her voice is strong enough for Dewey. She sings in tune and has a similar character quality to Dewey, so the role could suit her; vocal capability should be checked.

Frankie — Danielle

Described as hilarious, with good character work and the ability to sing. Considered a perfect choice.

Vic — Jenny

Considered a perfect fit; she can sing.

Sunny — Poppy

Bright, energetic, and did a good job in the role.

Sky — Sienna

A wildcard who gave a strong audition across dancing, singing, and acting. Though younger, she was solid and could make a good duo with Poppy. Alternatives to explore include a Beanie/Fitz pairing or a featured singing vampire role so she gets a moment.

DJ Bones — scene 2 speaking — Harry (y)

The brown-haired Harry did an okay job. The role needs someone outspoken and fun; the teacher believes more can be brought out of him.

DJ Bones — scene 5 singing — undecided

The teacher may prefer Harri (i), but is unsure. Harri (i) is currently confirmed as Mutt, so assigning them to the singing slot would require revisiting that casting. Keep the scene 2 speaking and scene 5 singing roles separate.

Beanie and Fitz — April and Cerys placeholders

April has character and an awkward quality; Cerys also reads as awkward. It is not yet clear who pairs well together or whether their awkwardness lands comically.

Zombino — Eleanor or Harper

One of the two; not decided.

Supporting roles and featured singers

Fluffy — Mia

Her height and physicality suit the role.

Fang — Alana

Outspoken and could deliver Fang's funny lines.

Fletch — Izzy

Also outspoken and new to the group. The teacher thinks Izzy, Alana, and Mia could work well together as a trio.

Invisible Kid — Hetti

Strong voice, somewhat underconfident. The role could help her build confidence and take on a lead.

Drew — Joy

Did a great job; the teacher does not see another strong option for Drew.

Luna — Tiarna

Not a singer, but has snappy energy similar to Alana, which may suit Luna.

Kreach — Rufus

Described as an obvious choice.

Shambles — Preston

Confirmed. The teacher thinks Rufus and Preston would bounce off each other well.

Knox — Georgia

Can sing and impressed in the audition; considered a good featured singer.

Mutt — Harri (i)

Currently confirmed; the rationale is tentative because the teacher is still reviewing whether Harri (i) should instead take a featured singing part.

Mutt, Zog and Shade — vocal casting to review

Harleigh sang well and in tune; Layla impressed in her audition; Georgia is also being considered. The teacher wants to determine whether the recurring songs require stronger singers, now that main singers have been assigned.

Soraya and Suri — further casting

The teacher was impressed by both and believes they can be cast somewhere; roles remain undecided. Suri is also Sophie's Dash understudy and remains on the to-cast list.
